

ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. TOM KENDALL ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF EVENT.

A very pretty home affair was the celebration of the second anniversary of the wedding of the Tom Kendalls on New Year's night, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Risch. There were cards, music and dancing to fill in the hours, and the evening passed away all too soon. The party was a merry one, and everybody had a thoroughly good time. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall leave for the coast tomorrow.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Dr. and Mrs. Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. Puddy Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sutcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McQuillan, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Risch, Mrs. Murphy, Miss Alice Grimes, Miss Daisy Eastin and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kendall.

ANOTHER NEW BILL AT BUTLER

The Butler theater will have another new bill tonight, which it is said, will in some particulars surpass that which has just closed. If it does, it will be going some, but there are a number of attractive titles to the moving pictures which give promise. Among the principal pictures will be "The Alps Through a Telescope," "Cinderella," the beautiful little fairy tale of our youth; "A Paper Factory," showing every stage in the manufacture of paper, from the wood to the sheet; "The Baby's First Outing," and "Making Pottery in Japan." There are two illustrated songs, one of which, "The Red Wing," is said to be very good.

The management of the Butler is now the joyous possessor of a gas machine and plant, so that they are no longer beholden to the electric company, and there will be no chance of the house closing for the night, in consequence of the shutting down of the power.

PERSONAL MENTION

A. M. Gillespie left yesterday for Rawhide.

Lewis A. Parkhurst will return today from Greenwater.

Mrs. S. M. Richardson and her son, Warren, will leave this morning for Mexico.

Tom G. Davis, a mining man of Manhattan, came in from that place yesterday. He will return today.

Charles Kirchen, the new general manager of the Nevada Smelting and Mines Corporation, leaves today for Tybo.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kendall will be passengers on tomorrow's train for their home in Alameda, where they will remain for a few days.

E. E. McMichael, route agent of the Wells Fargo & Co. Express Co., with headquarters at Carson, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Congressman George Bartlett will remain in the State during the special session of the legislature, which convenes in Carson on the 14th.

GUILD MEETING.

The regular meeting of St. Marks' Guild will be held in the guild hall this afternoon, January 3d, at 2 o'clock.

SALVATION ARMY SERVICE TONIGHT

INTERESTING PROGRAM AND TALK BY ADJUTANT ALWARD.

The Salvation Army, at its meeting tonight, will present a very interesting program, outside of the regular prayer service. Adjutant Alward of Sacramento will give a talk on the early days and the persecutions of the Army. The adjutant is well qualified to discourse on the subject, for he has had twenty years' experience in the ranks, and has suffered in the great cause. He has been in cities where each day's work began with a stoning by the populace, and sometimes wound up in a prison cell for his religious belief.

Adjutant Alward is making an inspection of the work of the Army in Southern Nevada and goes from here tomorrow to Goldfield. A new division of the Army, called the California-Nevada division has just been formed, and it is in connection with this work that he is sojourning in Southern Nevada. He says that he has found the work well in progress, and has been much gratified by the conditions. In Sacramento, he says, they collected $1000 for a Christmas dinner, out of which 700 families were given dinners, and 100 men fed in restaurants.

EIGHTY STAMPS BEGIN DROPPING

PITTSBURG SILVER PEAK ONLY WAITING FOR POWER TODAY.

Eighty stamps of the big mill of the Pittsburg Silver Peak will commence dropping at noon today, provided that the power can be furnished by the Nevada Light and Power Company. The company, up to the present, has been using only twenty stamps of the one hundred with which the mill is equipped.

The big mine is looking better than ever, and it is said that there is enough ore blocked out to keep the mill going to its full capacity for five years. This would be only a part of the immense output that is promised. Another big strike has been recorded in the Wasson tunnel on the big vein. This will go $40 a ton and in some places better, and the vein is said to be wider than fifteen feet.

HUGH FULTON'S FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral of Hugh Fulton, who was shot a week ago Sunday at Silver Bow, will take place this afternoon. The body has been held in waiting for the coming of the niece of the dead man, and the funeral will be under the auspices of the Odd Fellows and the Eagles.

NEWSPAPER MEN OFF FOR RAWHIDE

The Bonanza auto will leave this morning at 10 o'clock for Rawhide, bearing W. W. Booth, J. S. Daveiler and Letson Balliett. The party goes to make an inspection of the much talked of camp, and will spend several days in the study of the conditions, the people and the outlook.

EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS. The semi-annual examinations of teachers will commence on January 13th. The examinations in Nye county will be held in Tonopah and Manhattan. Those in Lincoln county will be held in Las Vegas and Pioche.

TONOPAH CLUB'S FINE STRUCTURE

KENDALL'S NEW BUILDING IS HIGHEST TYPE OF ARCHITECTURE.

Tonopah will have another magnificent building completed by the first of February, when the Tonopah Club building will be ready for occupancy. A solid white stone exterior, and finished within in marble, concrete, tiling and curly birch, the edifice which is being erected by Thomas W. Kendall is a building which if taken bodily and deposited in any metropolitan city, would attract attention and reflect credit on the builder and city alike.

It is a four-story affair, and extends from Main street to St. Patrick street. The front is in curly birch and a combination of cathedral, chipped, beveled and opalescent glass, above which is prismatic glass, lighting up every nook and cranny of the magnificent barroom within. The saloon will be finished in curly birch, which will form a wainscoting of seven feet in height, with a marble base, and the floor is covered with handsome tiling. The walls will be delicately tinted in peacock blue, and the ceiling paneled, with a handsome electric chandelier depending from the center of each panel. Ornamental side brackets will flash electric lights from the walls.

A bar, twenty-six feet in length, will occupy the north side of the apartment, and at the east end of this an office has already been put up. The main office and the safe will be at the western end of the saloon. The entire room has been wired, as has in fact the whole house, and sanitary plumbing runs throughout, supplying hot and cold water, and carrying off the waste to the sewer.

Below stairs is to be the cafe, and this, when finished, will vie in appearance with anything of the kind in San Francisco, or west of the Rockies. The sweep of the cafe is 120 feet, by 40 feet in width. It is to be thrown into one big dining room. All the wiring and plumbing is in position, and the tiling of the floor is nearly completed. A favorite place in winter and summer in this apartment will be the space underneath the sidewalk. At one end of the restaurant is a lavatory for ladies and at the other end one for gentlemen. These will be completely furnished with mirrors and toilet accessories, and will have hot and cold water.

At the back of the cafe is the kitchen, in which is to be placed an immense range, and all the improvements known to the culinary art. There is a great grease pan, or sink in an adjoining room, which will catch and retain all the kitchen refuse. Adjoining this is the heater, which supplies warmth to the cafe, to the bar, and to all the rooms in the two upper stories. The kitchen is two stories below the level of St. Patrick street, and above it is the wine room of the saloon.

The upper floors will be furnished with every convenience and comfort of the modern hotel of today. There are several magnificent suites, besides the single rooms. Every room has hot and cold running water, gas and electricity, a heater, a call button, and plenty of closet space. It is on the top floor that the machinery for the electric apparatus is placed, and there are no less than six miles of wire running through the building. Into the little office at the bar, a wire from the Western Union runs, and there is another wire connecting with the office of the Chief of Police.

The upper stories reserved for the hotel part of the building, will be well lighted, for there are no less than three lights wells. There are baths on each floor, and a fire plug on every floor.

There is a photograph in the window of Harry Epstein, the broker, on Brougher avenue. It is a picture of the first Tonopah Club, which was a one-story shack, and which was at that time owned by Mr. Kendall. It forms a wonderful comparison with the present magnificent Kendall structure, which is a monument, not only to the worth of the builder, but to the confidence that he has in the future of Tonopah. It is fitting that Tom Kendall should be the builder and owner of such a structure. He is a pioneer, and made his money in this camp, and he believes in putting some of it back into the ground as an investment. He has certainly reared a lofty monument to his enterprise.

The best of service can be found at the Nevada Club; the most magnificent establishment west of New York.

BORAX SMITH CLAIMS BIG BILL

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Last summer Louis Pacquet, a waiter in New York's fashionable Cafe Martin, found a $1000 bill on the floor there and notified the proprietor, who had the fact published. Since then many claimants have applied for the money but none of them correctly fixed the date on which the bill was dropped, and the waiter, who was to get the bill at the end of one year if the owner did not appear, has been regarding it as practically his.

Now, however, a claim has been presented on behalf of F. M. Smith of Oakland, Cal., the millionaire who is known as "Borax" Smith, by Christian Zabriskie, New York manager of the Pacific Coast Borax Company, of which Smith is the head. Zabriskie, when interviewed tonight, would not give the name of the Oakland man for whom he is acting, but he described Smith perfectly, saying: "He is one of the wealthiest men in California, but spends a great deal of his time here. He owns a fine place on Long Island, is a member of the New York Yacht Club and is very much interested in automobilizing, motor-boating and other out of door sports."

Smith recently noticed a newspaper reference to the lost bill and remembered that while here last summer, when he gave several dinner parties at Martin's, he dropped a $1000 bill somewhere.

"My friend," said Zabriskie, "remembers the loss perfectly because he happened to have only one $1000 bill in his pocketbook at that time along with several $500 bills. He ordinarily carries three or four $1000 bills with him, so that if he sees anything he fancies in the way of an automobile or a boat or a piece of real estate, he can close a bargain. I have known him to carry $10,000 in his pocket as if it were so much loose change."

WAITER PASSES FORGED CHECK

Milo Medin, who has been employed at the Montana restaurant as a waiter, forged the name of W. W. Pangburn, the proprietor of the restaurant, to a twenty-dollar check last night and passed it at the Hoffman saloon. The forgery was discovered this morning and a warrant was immediately sworn out for Medin's arrest. A search was made for him, but no trace could be found. It is supposed that he has left town.

TOO GOOD FOR EARTH.

The Reno Gazette calls for estimates the kind of man a woman should marry and gets the following from Carson:

"My ideal young man is one who has met with many adversities, gone through many hardships, privations and adventures, through all of which he has proven himself a man. He honors a woman and is generous in thought, word and deed. He is moral in every sense of the word, honest, ambitious, kind, lovable, does not use tobacco, drink liquor, gamble or use profane language.

"Edith May Jackson, Carson, Nev." The Carson Appeal asks: Does anyone know such a man in Carson? If so, please give his name to the Appeal.
